Announcement of 2009-2010 Fulbright Fellowships for Indian Nationals

Greetings from the U.S. Educational Foundation in India (USEFI), the Fulbright Commission in India!

I am happy to inform you that USEFI has recently announced Fulbright Fellowships for Indian citizens for the academic year 2009-2010. Open to students, faculty and professionals, Fulbright fellowships are offered in a wide range of fields including agriculture, civic engagement, business studies, communication studies, education, environment, humanities and social sciences, public administration, public health, strategic studies, science, technology and engineering, and urban and regional planning. Application due date for most of the fellowships is July 15, 2008.

Details about the fellowship programs, application procedure and guidelines, and the selection process are available in the Fulbright Fellowships brochure and are also posted on the USEFI website www.fulbright-india.org. Two copies of this brochure are enclosed. Please refer individuals interested in applying for a Fulbright fellowship to this brochure or to the USEFI website. I appreciate your efforts to spread the word about Fulbright opportunities.

As always, USEFI thanks you for your support and cooperation in spreading the word about the Fulbright Program.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Sarina Paranjape
Indian Program Officer
