After the presentation by the Vice-Chancellor regarding the performance of the University during 10th Plan as well as the proposals for the 11th Plan, the above Committee commenced its work and the members were divided into three groups and visited the 20 UGC aided departments of the university with respective subject experts.

In addition to this, the Committee also visited the departments which have been established under the Self-financing basis by the University on its own and being supported by the revenue generated by the respective programs. The University is also able to augment infrastructure by ploughing back some funds for new buildings, equipment and other support system. The Committee was also informed that the University had accumulated a Corpus fund to strengthen its financial position.

The Committee also visited the Central Facilities including Central Library, Placement Cell, Women's Cell, SC/ST Cell, University Canteen, Sahitya Kutir, Computer Centre, Auditorium, boys Hostel, Girls Hostel and Sports facilities.

The Committee also met the representatives of the teaching / non-teaching staff and students to obtain an overall feedback from all the stakeholders. The Committee also held a meeting with the Vice-Chancellor before finalizing its report.

6. Number of Faculties: Total Eight (Only five in the campus)

7. Number of Departments: 20 UGC/Govt. aided and 15 Self-Financed

Though the University proposed a number of new programs, initiatives and plans in the XI Plan, the committee suggested that these needs to be pursued with relevant ministries/ departments and agencies like Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, DBT, Ministry of Health and Family Welfare and also UGC under its Innovative programs and other schemes.

As regards the request regarding teaching positions sought by the University, the committee observed that out of total 84 sanctioned positions 33 positions - 4 (P), 13 (R), 16 (L) are lying vacant and needs to be filled.

2	Economics	1 Lecturer
3	History	1 Lecturer
4	Political Science	1 Lecturer
