Announcement 2020
Project- based Personnel Exchange Programme with India
- Indo-German Joint Research Collaboration -

DAAD / University Grants Commission (UGC)
Last Date : 6th August 2020

Agreement

The programme 'Project-based Personnel Exchange' is a bilateral research promotion programme that is a result of the agreement concluded between the German Academic Exchange Service and the University Grants Commission (UGC) in 2006.

Who are the funding institutions?

DAAD receives funds for implementing the programme through a budget allocation by the Federal Ministry of Education and Research (BMBF). On the Indian side the programme is funded by the University Grants Commission (UGC) of the Government of India.

What are the aims of the programme?

The basic aim of the programme is to strengthen the collaboration between Indian and German research groups, which are working jointly on a particular scientific project. The programme 'Project-based Personnel Exchange' envisages, in this connection, financial support for operational mobility only. Particular emphasis is thereby accorded to academic training and specialization of young researchers. Concrete objectives have to be mentioned in the application (project description) (including the number and academic credentials of the researchers to be supported).

Research collaborations entered into with the intention of initiating major projects, such as the preparation of joint applications meant for submission to any other funding organisation, are highly preferred.

Which are the target groups?

Scientists / researchers, university professors, post-doctoral researchers and doctoral students.

Who can apply?

University professors, scientists and post-doctoral researchers from German and Indian universities and those in permanent employment at independent research institutes are eligible to apply.

The programme is open to academics in the disciplines of Humanities and Social Sciences.

What are the pre-requisites for application?

The pre-requisite for applying is a concrete and precise scientific research project of high quality, on which academics from both countries jointly, and to the extent possible complementarily, want to work on. It would not suffice to describe scientific problems of a general nature that both research groups are interested in.

The basic funding for the project (personnel and material costs on both sides) must be secured by own funds or by third party funding.

The research group on both sides should each consist of a project leader and up to two doctoral students or post-doctoral researchers. The total number of participants in the project on both sides should not exceed three from each side.

Application shall be considered by UGC and DAAD only if a parallel application has been submitted by the Indian and German partner with the UGC and DAAD respectively. Therein must be clearly described, the concrete tasks that would be undertaken by the German group and those that would be taken up by the Indian partner.

The scientific contents of the proposal should be common on both sides.

What is the funding period?

A project, if jointly approved, shall be funded for a maximum period of two years.

In case the applicant leaves his/her institution before the expiry of the official validity of the project, its continuity must be safeguarded, for instance through a written confirmation by the grantee institution.

The project funds from June 2020 onwards for two years will be sanctioned under the condition that the budgetary funds will be made available to DAAD and UGC through the funding ministries.

What are the measures that can be funded?

The financial support under this scheme is available only to support exchange visits to the partner institution, which are undertaken during the course of the project-related collaboration. These allowances cover all the expenses related to mobility and hospitality.

Short term stays of scientists and doctoral students are eligible for funding. The maximum duration of stay for scientists is 30 days per visit per year and for doctoral students is 50 days per visit per year. The project description must clearly mention the criteria used for selection of the scientists/ research scholars to be supported.

Within the validity of the project duration, a total of 4 visits by the German participants and 4 visits by the Indian participants shall be funded subject to the condition that not more than one visit is permitted during a year for a particular project participant. The funds can be utilised only to support mobility of the project participants officially included in the project document.

The number and duration of the exchange visits must be balanced in number on both sides. The reciprocity of visits approved under the project has to be strictly ensured from both sides.

DAAD shall bear the expenses related to international travel (including medical insurance, visa fee, domestic travels) of the members of the German research group to their Indian partner institution; and the local hospitality for members of the Indian research group visiting Germany.

UGC, on the other hand, shall bear the expenses related to the International travel related expenses (airfare, medical insurance, visa fees, domestic travel in India and Germany of the Indian research group members visiting Germany and the local hospitality of the German research group members visiting India by granting respective allowances.

It is understood that the expenses incurred in connection with the project which go beyond the scope of funding provided by DAAD and UGC (basic office set-up, procurement of equipment, consumables, documentation, photocopies & printing and personnel costs) will be borne by the respective Institutions.

What cannot be funded?

The following shall not be funded:

- Projects of the Indo-German Cooperation in Research and Technology that pertain to the same topic, which are already being funded by another mode, and also include personnel exchange.
- Pure skill enhancement projects
- Bilateral collaboration, which form only a part of an otherwise multilateral collaboration funded through other routes.
- Language courses
- Individual scholarships
- Project-related ancillary expenses (computing time, material expenses, documentations, photocopying and printing expenses)
- Expenses towards setting up basic facilities such as office space and equipment, as well as staff expenses.
- Pure seminar events
- Conference participations

What are the selection criteria?

The applications are evaluated on both sides by independent selection committee. The final selection is made jointly by UGC and DAAD.

- The key criteria for the selection are: The quality of the project (here especially: the clarity of project goals and methodology).
- The scientific significance and relevance of the project (The topicality of the subject and the level of innovation in the project)
- Feasibility of the research project (under which especially: security of funding arrangement, preparatory work, and appropriate planning for reciprocal visits)
- Project-relevant competency of both the research groups.
- Complementarities of the research groups in their common objectives (with regard to methodology, content, instruments, etc.)
- Adequate participation of young scientists.

Other criteria are:

- Knowledge transfer between the German and the Indian group.
- Scientific and/ or industrial useability, where applicable, of the project results.
- Additional benefit (technical, institutional, inter-disciplinary) through cooperation with the Indian partner.

What are the things to be kept in mind at the time of application?

Only those applications that have been submitted by both partners to UGC as well as to DAAD, complete in all respects, shall be considered for evaluation. Incomplete applications shall be summarily rejected. No advance copies of the proposals shall be accepted by UGC. The proposals received after the notified due date shall not be considered in any case.
