D.O.No. F. 1-9/2011 (CPP-II)

January 14, 2019

Respected Madam/Sir,

The Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Dept. of Youth Affairs, is organizing the National Youth Parliament Festival 2019 which is being launched on 12th January, 2019 on National Youth Day. The objectives of the National Youth Parliament Festival are to hear the voice of Youth to encourage and enable youth to understand and articulate on public issues and also to develop respect and tolerance for views of others etc.

The Youth participants can enroll for District Youth Parliament through two processes i.e. digitally through myGov portal (URL:https://innovate.mygov.in/youth-parliament/) between 12.1.19 to 18.1.19 and through walk-in into a nodal institution (college) in each district between 17.1.19 to 19.1.19. After the preliminary screening the youth will participate in the District Youth Parliament. The best three speakers from each district will participate in the State Youth Parliament. Similarly, the best two speakers from the State will participate in the National Youth Parliament. However, in addition, the best speaker of each district will attend the National Youth Parliament as a delegate, which will be held at New Delhi on 23rd /24th February, 2019. The Parliament will be organized under the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports by the National Service Scheme (NSS) and NYKS.

All the higher educational institutions are requested to propagate the program widely so that maximum number of youth may participate from each district and convey relevant instructions to all the affiliated colleges/ institutes.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Rajnish Jain)

The Vice Chancellors of all Universities
